EGIN HOT WATER
DRINKING IF YOU
DON'T FEEL RIGHT

Use glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons.

If you wake up with a bad taste, bad tongue and throat coated; if your stomach is aching; if what you eat forms acid in stomach; if you are lethargic, constipated, nervous, sallow and don't get feeling just right, begin bathing. Drink before breakfast a glass of hot water with a teaspoon of limestone phosphate in it. This flushes the poisons and toxins from liver, kidneys and bowels and lance, sweetens and purifies the entire digestive tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all a previous day's poisonous waste, and sour bile before eating more food.

To feel like young folks feel: like you before your blood and muscles become loaded with body impurities, get as your pharmacist a quarter pound limestone phosphate, which is inexpensive and almost tasteless. Use men and women who are usually constituted, bilious, headache or have any bathing before breakfast. Adv.
each disorder should begin this instantly.

WILLIAMS KEPT ON DEFENSIVE BY CITIZENS' LEAGUE

Paine, Edgar, Shannon, Johnson and Allen Talk to Two Large Gatherings—Paine
Shows Up C. C. Breeden.

The Citizens' league held two good rallies Wednesday night, one at Mc-Lemore avenue and Cummings street and the other in DeSoto park. More than 200 voters attended the rally in the Twenty-sixth ward and about 250 were at DeSoto park.

Rowlett Paine and the other candidates for commissioner, spoke at each meeting and at the meeting on McLemore avenue, Mrs. S. J. Ellis and Mrs.
K. H. Phillips also spoke to the women voters, urging them to support the candidates whose pledges for better schools, better methods in city government and law enforcement, backed by their past records and high personal character, guarantee that these pledges will be carried out.

Mr. Paine said that Mr. Williams has been forced to take the defensive side of the argument, owing to the facts which are known of his long political record and that he is too busy defending himself to talk of the real issues in the campaign. These are, he said, simply whether the people of Memphis really want to employ five men, not connected with factional politics in any way to conduct the affairs of the city for four years, or whether they prefer an old politician, with the old ideas of politics.

Comparison Was Invited.

"Mr. Williams has undertaken in several recent speeches to compare the records of John R. Edgar and Mr.
Breeden," he said, "asking which would make the better commissioner of fire and police. I can tell you.

"On the one hand, is Mr. Edgar, with a record of business success, a record for knowing men, a record recently in the Red Cross work right here in Memphis.

"On the other, is Mr. Breeden, who I have information, in 1915, when he was in the drug business in Chattanooga, made a disastrous failure. His business was in the bankruptcy courts, and with liabilities of about $2,000, and scheduled assets of more than $80,000, his business and personal creditors got scarcely nothing when the business was wound up.

"A man to help in carrying on the $4,000,000 business of Memphis should have been a success in his own business. Mr. Edgar has had long experience in handling men also, and Mr.
Breeden has advanced no ideas for improving the personnel and the methods of the police department, which are at present conducted, and as conducted by Mr. Williams through the long years when he was mayor, were pronounced by every newspaper in the city as a disgrace that caused good citizens to hang their heads."

Mr. Edgar, Mr. Shannon, Horace Johnson and Maj. Allen spoke at both meetings, outlining the Citizens' league platform, and showing that the idea to put men technically trained in each city department as commissioners is a unique one in local politics.

Reports made at each meeting showed that in the Twenty-sixth ward the Citizens' league ticket is gaining new votes every day and that in the southern end of the city around DeSoto park, the better element of the voters is solidly lined up back of that ticket.

Sara Has A "Drag,"

$50 Back She Paid
For Running House

Sara Coleman, notorious keeper of a house of ill-fame, Rayburn boulevard, evident has a "drag" with the city administration.

Arrested on Oct. 10 for running a disorderly house, Sara forfeited a big lump of coin, listed on the police blotter at $50.

What did Sara care?
Very, very recently she drew from the city of Memphis a sum equal to that which she had expended in forfeit—$50—and it came in the shape of a refund, receipt for which is signed by "Sara Coleman," and after her name that of "Chas. Wendt."

Although Sara has a nifty little place on Rayburn, evidently the Montevideo administration didn't class it with the usual run of disorderly houses.

It pays to stand Sara got back her $50, on a recommendation signed by L. T. Fitzhugh, judge of the city court, which is a mere formality. But the city commissioners whose names appear on the voucher slip were—

Alfred V. Mason, Frank L. Monteverde and Charles B. Quinn.

This trio ordered that Sara get back her $50—and she did.

Woman Says Bry's Charges Of Theft Were Unfounded

Mrs. E. V. Denton, on the witness stand in her own behalf in her damage suit for $15,000 against the Bry-Block Merchandise company in First circuit court, Thursday testified that she was unjustly accused of attempting to steal three $200 handkerchiefs at Bry's on Dec. 24, 1918.

Mrs. Denton said that she had picked up the handkerchiefs and was waiting to have them wrapped up and pay for them, when a woman detective arrested her and took her before a Mr. Lewis charging her with the theft of the goods. Witness said she was finally released after being greatly humiliated, and no charge was preferred against her.

Lowell Taylor, of the firm of Ewing, King & King, is conducting Mrs. Den-ton's case for her, while Leo Goodman and Avergne Williams are representing the department store.

NEW THEATER AT ONCE SAID TO BE ORPHEUM PROJECT

Summoned to Chicago Wednesday night by long distance telephone John A. Bertram, manager of the Orpheum theater, Thursday was in conference with Martin Beck, head of the Orpheum circuit and realty company and other Eastern and Chicago capitalists. While giving no particulars of the purpose of the visit Mr. Bertram, before leaving, did not deny that the conference was called to consider the comprehensive building program already outlined by Mr. Beck and his associates.

Memphis is affected by this program, according to gossip in theatrical circles, in the erection of a new Orpheum theater at once, probably to be completed before the end of this season, at least by the beginning of another. The present Orpheum theater, at Main street and Beale avenue, under the proposed building program, will be converted into a popular vaudeville house giving three shows daily.

COAL OPERATORS IN WASHINGTON DO NOT ACCEPT WORKERS' TERMS

right: A. W. Calloway, Thomas F. Brewster, S. H. Robbins and A. R.
Hamilton.

Big coal operators were in Washington last week trying to arrive at some satisfactory agreement with the miners, who threaten to go on strike Nov. 1.
The above group of operators was photographed just after leaving a conference in which they flatly refused to accept the workers' terms. Calloway is president of the Davis Coal and Coke Co.; Brewster is chairman of the operators' executive committee; Robbins is president of the Youghiogheny and Ohio Coal Co., and Hamilton is vice-president of the National Coal association.
